TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	Page.
Results of operation	7–11
1. Balance sheet	7
2. Income and expenses	8
3. Reserve position of the bank	9
4. Discount rates	10
5. Maturities of investments	11
Investments during 1916	11–15
1. Member bank rediscounts and advances	11
2. Bankers' acceptances and the discount market	12
3. United States bond operations	14
4. Municipal warrants	15
Federal Reserve note issues	16
Collections and clearings	17–20
1. Collection system	17
2. Gold settlement fund	20
3. Transfer system	20
Fiscal agency of the United States	21
Relations with member banks	21
Relations with nonmember banks	23
Relations with the public	23
Organization of the bank	23–26
1. Internal management of the bank	23
2. Bank premises	24
3. Election of directors	25
4. Advisory council	26
General business and banking conditions	26–35
1. Banking position of the district during 1916	26
2. Money rates	26
3. Gold movement	27
4. Foreign loans	27
5. Foreign banking conditions	30
6. New York Stock Exchange transactions	32
7. Crop conditions	33
8. Imports and exports	34
9. General business conditions	34

APPENDIX.

Capital account reconciliation	36
Federal Reserve notes	36
Operations in Government bonds	37
Transit and exchange transactions	37
Gold settlement fund operations	37
Schedule showing when proceeds of items will become available	38
Authority given national banks to accept up to 100 per cent of capital and surplus	38